VIL LX: No. 25 REDWOOD CITY, CALIFORNIA SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1920 ESTABLISHED 1859

POSTOFFICE LOCATED MEAR S. P. DEPOT

The postoffice will move to its new quarters near the corner of Broadway and Winslow street on Thursday. Business men living on Main stret and upper Broadway are much peeved for having to walk so far for their mail and in this they may have a just cause for complaint for the office is located far from the center of population. But as Redwood City is growing in that direction some day it might be in the center of activities. However the postoffice is likely to remain in its present location for this generation at least or until San Mateo county is absorbed by San Francisco when it may become a branch office with a poor service similar to the service given to South San Francisco and Daly City which are branch offices. This, however, will be in the dim and distant future so the present generation need not worry.

The Redwood City postoffice has seen many changes both in postmasters and location since it was established in 1850.

The first postmaster was J. Hancock who established the office in the original American House on Broadway located where the Wahl building now stands. In those days the mail came overland in a stage. There was only one delivery a day. Hancock was succeeded by Thomas Noble who was postmaster in 1860. John F. Ford, as a little boy, received the family mail there and well remembers the genial postmaster. Doctor Merrill held the office some time after and moved it to the Tremont House. He was succeeded by Dr. Wilcox who moved it to his drug store near the Germania hall block. Later Will Frisbie was appointed postmaster and he moved it up the street to his drug store. When President Cleveland was elected Harry Jacobinson was appointed postmaster and he maintained the office at his clothing store where the Alhambra theatre is located. He was succeeded by John Poole who moved the office to the building where the Elite Barbershop is located. Under the second Cleveland administration Valentine Hussey was chosen postmaster and he moved the headquarters to the Capitol Hotel building where it remained until it was moved on Thursday.

George W. Lovie succeeded Hussey, W. A. Price came after Lovie and Price was succeeded by J. V. Swift, under whose administration the carrier's system was established. Who will be the next postmaster?

COUNTY GRAND JURY APPOINTED WEDNESDAY

The new grand jury was impaneled in the superior court on Wednesday morning by Judge Buck. His charge to the jury was brief and void of anything bordering on sensation. He appointed N. J. McNamara of San Mateo foreman.

Judge Buck called attention to the inequality of the salaries paid county officials. He said some were not being paid enough for their work while others were getting too much. He charged the jury to investigate the matter.

Judge Buck said the jury need not look into the affairs of the board of supervisors, that the members were elected by the people and if there were extravagances and needless expenditures by the board it was up to the people whose servants they were. The people could retire them if they wished. The jury was also cautioned not to investigate the highways of the county as that matter also rested with the supervisors.

The cout was glad to say that it had no local matters to bring before the jury.

Mrs. Delia Scott, of South San Francisco, was chosen secretary.

The following are names of the grand jury:

Pearl W. Elfman, San Mateo; N. J. McNamara, San Mateo; Stella Custer, , San Mateo; Elsie J. Turk, Belmont; J. A. Genochio, Redwood City; Grace J. Baker, Redwood City; Jeanne J. Fahy, Lomita Park; Mary Di Vita, South San Francisco; Isabella Mighall, Woodside; Richard Harder, South San Francisco; Delia W. Scott, South San Francisco; Alice P. At present the bride-to-be is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Lewis (nee Louise Pitcher) at Charleston, Washington. The wedding is to be held soon.

Frank Herm arrived home to eat his Thanksgiving turkey with his parents here. He returned on Tuesday from a cruise on the U. S. New York from the Hawaiian Islands. Mr. Herm has brought glory to Redwood City by his excellent ball playing. The Atlantic fleet and the Pacific fleet will play a game for the championship of the United States at Panama on February first. Herm belongs to the latter. He leaves on Monday for San Diego to begin practice for the big game. He was given a special birth at San Diego so that he could practice. He is to play left field for the Pacific fleet team.

The Feltons have taken a house on Sixteenth avenue in the Sunset district. Freeman Felton is employed in the Anglo, London and Paris Bank. Mr. and Mrs. Felton have always taken a lively interest in the social and civic affairs of the city. They will be missed.

Will A. Silvey of Santa Cruz in coming from San Francisco in a Ford automobile ran into the warning sign at Broadway and Arguello street at 2:30 o'clock Thursday morning. The machine turned turtle and was badly wrecked. Silvey and a male companion were thrown out and severely shaken up. The auto was placed in a garage for repairs. The men left that mroning for Santa Cruz. Before the party reached Redwood City the lights on the machine went out and this caused the accident. Nightwatch man Joseph Roza was at the scene of the accident and rendered all the assistance possible.

The card party at the parochial residence of Father Kennedy on Tuesday evening last was a decided success. There were thirty-five tables in use. J. P. Weller won the first gentlemen's prize and Mrs. J. N. Winter, the first ladies' prize. The committee in charge which consisted of Mrs. J. P. Weller, Mrs. W. T. Chubbuck, Mrs. Harry Zimmermann and Miss Irene Dickey are grateful to the following who donated prizes: Franklin Swart, Guy P. Hull and D. P. Flynn.

Walton T. Maloney, well-known young businessman of this city, and Miss Ida Meyn, prominent San Francisco girl, were united in marriage at Mission Delores church, San Francisco, Sunday afternoon, November 7, Rev. Miss Young was awarded a cash prize of $7.50.

Assessor D. P. Flynn is mourning the loss of four fine fat gobbler turkeys taken from his ranch at Atherton during the week. The birds were corn fed and weighed twenty pounds each. Mr. Flynn contemplated giving them to friends for their Thanksgiving dinner. The birds were worth $50.

The fourteen prisoners at the county jail were given a tempting Thanksgiving dinner by mine host M. Sheehan, on Thursday. The menu consisted of roast pork with apple sauce, carrots, mashed potatoes, mince pie and assorted fruits.

McCracken and Sampson, who recently purchased the Brown auto repaid shop on Main street, have leased the quarters on the corner of Broadway and Washington street vacated a short time ago by D. M. Flynn. These young men are now engaged in remodeling the interior of the building. They contemplate carrying a large assortment of automobile accessories and sundries besides equipping it as a modern repair shop.

The Foresters' Hall Association will give a dance in their hall on Saturday evening, December 4. A good time, good music and a smooth floor. What more do the dancers want? The association contemplates giving a dance on December 11 also.

Late in the afternoon the following jury was secured to try the case:

He is now engaged in a case in San Francisco.

In his opening statement to the jury the district attorney stated that he expected to prove tha three young women came to the office of defendant in San Francisco during the month of August and were sent to the "Castle" to be operated on and were operated upon by the defendant shortly after. For one he received $350, another $300 and another $50. It took only five minutes to perform each operation. The three young women will appear as witnesses in the case.

The trial is certain to be full of sensational testimony.

Walter Adams, charged with stealing $200 from a fellow prisoner at the county jail some time ago, and who pleaded guilty to the charge of burglary, will be sent to the U. S. Navy for a term. "Here's my one-dollar bill
For an anti-Jap pill.
If you need more
To close the open door
And protect our golden shore,
Both now and forevermore,
Let me know by return mail
And I'll respond without fail;
We must protect our groves and fields.
As ever your friend, John J. Shields."

LARRECOU MET INTRUDER EARLY SUNDAY MORNING

While patroling the southern end of the city about 5 o'clock Sunday morning in his automobile, Night Officer Pete Larrecou suddenly came upon a man who was acting in a suspicious manner in the vicinity of the Pacific Silicate company's plant on Pine street. Larrecou called out to the fellow, asking what he was doing, when the latter, without answering, quickly drew a revolver from his pocket and fired at the officer. Rudolph Holmquist, Jr., was riding with Larrecou at the time and the bullet struck the seat of the car just behind him.

Larrecou returned the fire, getting two shots at the man, as he ran into a lumber yard nearby and disappeared in the darkness. A careful search by the officer in the vicinity failed to find any trace of the fellow, who it is believed was planning on breaking into the silicia plant.

BUS LINE IS GRANTED A SLIGHT FARE INCREASE

The California State Railroad Commission has granted to the Peninsula Rapid Transit company, permission to raise the rates of fares to points between San Francisco and San Jose. The increase to most places amounts to five cents over the present fare. From San Francisco to San Jose the raise will be ten cents. The fares from San Mateo and Burlingame to San Francisco remain the same as before.

In granting the raise in rates the Railroad Commission finds that the Peninsula Rapid Transit company has been economically managed and is rendering an adequate public service.

Although the cost of tires and gasoline have been increased 100 per cent and some other commodities 500 per cent since the company commenced operating five years ago, this concern has not before increased its passenger rates. The raise in wages of the hundred or more employes has been no small factor in the increase of operating expense.

All round-trip and ten-ride books have been discontinued under the new fare schedule. The present fare from Palo Alto to San Francisco is 59 cents. The new rate including war tax will be 65 cents. From Palo Alto to San Jose the present rate is 49 cents and the new rate including war tax will be 54 cents. The fares from Redwood City and adjacent points take a similar raise of five cents plus war tax.

The new fares became effective November 25.

CONTEST FILED AGAINST THE WILL OF WILLIAM H. LIPP

Mrs. Lillian M. Barton on Tuesday filed a contest to the will of her father, the late William H. Lipp, who died on September 26, 1919. The instrument was executed while Mr. Lipp was in the Huling hospital four days before his death.

The will was duly probated and the estate is about to be settled. The appraised value of the estate is $22,000. The Lipp building on Main street is one of the holdings of the estate.

Lipp bequeathed $5 to each of his five children and left the balance of the estate in trust to Charles E. Lipp, a brother, residing in San Francisco and to his son, W. H. Lipp, Jr., for the benefit of his wife who is to receive all the earnings of the estate during her life time. After her death the trust is to continue and the income is to go to certain grandchildren and certain children of the deceased.

Lillian M. Barton now asks that the will be revoked and the estate distributed to the heirs at law, alleging that the son William H. Lipp, Jr., took advantage of the father who was not at sound mind at the time of making the will; that the will was not that of her father; and that it was not signed according to law.

E. F. Fitzpatrick, who drew the will, is the attorney for the estate and Archer Kincaid represents Mrs. Barton.

ALL HAVE REASON TO BE THANKFUL THIS YEAR

The people of San Mateo county in general and the residents of Redwood City in particular have every reason to give thanks for the manifold blessings they have received during the year. The county was never so prosperous, every resident is contented and happy. They live in a locality blessed by nature which has bestowed its very choicest gifts upon it. Warm sunshine is enjoyed, flowers are blooming and all nature is radiant with happiness, while in other places people are almost frozen with cold, snow and blizzards prevail, taking the very joy out of life. Centainly San Mateo county has every reason to be happy and thankful.

Redwood City is soon to see a new industry start which will bring added prosperity to the community. The new cement plant soon to begin operations means much to Redwood City. It means the exploitation of the water front where many industries will be located.

The cement plant will start with a big pay roll, hundreds of men are to be employed and thousands of dollars spent among our merchants.

Verily Redwood City has much to be thankful for.

ROWELL NOT WANTED ON THE U. S. SHIPPING BOARD

Every republican in the state of California hopes that the senate will not confirm the nomination of Chester Rowell as a member of the U. S. Shipping Board. He is appointed by President Wilson as a republican, the law requiring the board to be non-partisan. Rowell is not a republican, he is a democrat and is receiving the appointment for his reward in betraying the republican party. During the recent campaign he supported Cox for the presidency and stumped the state for the re-election of Senator James D. Phelan. Rowell is a renegade, a traitor to his party and his appointment should not be confirmed by a republican senate.

MINISTERIAL COMMENT— THANKSGIVING DAY SERVICE

Mingled with our spirit of Thanksgiving today is a feeling of more than usual gratitude that the Great Father of all of us had lead us on the way toward peace though we seen it but afar.

To one of the agencies contributing to a fundamental peace—The American Red Cross—we look with love and confidence—it is our avenue through which we can express our desire to help the needy throughout the world.

With 2,000 wounded and convalescent men still in the Army and Navy hospitals in California and 1500 ex-service men in the United States Public Health hospitals in the Pacific Division, and as many more under training through the Federal Board for Vocational Education, all of whom receive some form of Red Cross service—can we say in verity "The war is over?" Is the war over until the last pledge to the men who bore arms is redeemed? "No" a resounding "No" is the response the American Red Cross makes to both queries, an dto back up that answer the Red Cross maintains its detailed organization in every city and town in the United States that the line of communication be kept open between the soldier and sailor and the dependents at home.

To do this work the American Red Cross must be kept what it was originally intended to be—a huge volunteer group of red blooded American citizens who associate themselves together in a common cause—to administer help where help is needed. To make the society most expressive it is essential that each community do its share toward bringing the membership up to a full representation of the adult population o feach civic group. Is our community recording the wish of every man and woman in this Red Cross membership in the Fourth Red Cross Roll Call? Are we making this day a day of Thanksgiving in fact as well as in words unless we, to a man, become members of he Red Cross, which is the means through which each of us can add a little to the sum of human gain in comfort, hope and courage?

To discharge the obligation of the Red Cross it is imperative that its quota of membership be reached since the organization is dependent upon membership dues to carry out its definite program. The present Roll Call is not a drive for funds but a call for re-enrollment that means the payment of the annual dues of $1.00 or the larger sum of $5.00 or $10.00 which gives the donor a contributing or sustaining membership respectively.

The major portion of the fee is held in the local chapter for use in conducting the community program. The remainder, fifty cents out of the dollar, one out of the five, and two out of the ten goes to National Headquarters for the purpose of conducting the Divisional and National program in the Army and Navy hospitals in camps and in the United States Public Health Service hospitals of which there are now six in the Pacific Division.

It is with more feeling than that of a mere announcement that we present the claim of the American Red Cross this morning and urge every man and woman in this audience to take out a Red Cross membership today. It is with the impulse of brotherly love that makes of each or us the Good Samaritan that I bespeak your prompt interest in the Fourth Red Cross Roll Call which is drawing to a close.

I finally urge you to renew your subscription now and again next year and each succeeding year as faithfully as you attend a Thanksgiving Day service and with as much joy in doing it as belongs to your annual feast at Christmas.

"Once a Red Cross member always a Red Cross member" is the logical attitude of mind toward this greatest of volunteer organizations that the world has ever known.
